NEWS & UPDATES

Our new Men's/Women's classes on leadership begins tonight!

JANUARY FEBRUARY MARCH

LEADERSHIP

Men's & Women's Classes

Welcome To The SCOC Family!

We are thrilled to officially welcome Jeff & Robin Richards to the SCOC family! They have been worshipping with us for several months & officially placed membership last week. If you haven't already, take some time to get to know Jeff & Robin! Their directory page is on the table at the back of the auditorium. If you are a member & would like an updated directory emailed to you, contact Christy.

Lads ScRAPbook!

WE NEED YOUR PICS!

Cecily Gill is organizing a scrapbook for the L2L convention this year. We would like the scrapbook to include pics of all of our members & events throughout the past year. Also, if your child is involved in sports or any activities, please include those as well. Please turn in your printed pics to Cecily. Or, if you have digital pics, please see Christy.

TEACHERS STILL NEEDED

We are in need of Bible school teachers! We urgently need teachers & assistants for our K-6th grade classes on Wednesday evenings, as well as those who will help in the rotation on Sunday evenings. Rebekah Henry has graciously offered to take this class temporarily on Wednesdays, but she already teaches on Sunday mornings. Please see Ben Coxwell if you can help!

January - Elder Of The Month:

READING THE BIBLE IN A YEAR:

The Role of a Lifetime

The casting agent enters the room with her top picks for the show's leading man and lady. The new series will follow the spellbinding story of a clan that builds a powerful, world-impacting family tree. This is the pilot, and it is crucial to make the right call on the individuals who will fall in love and launch this Kennedy-like family of influence and fame. Producers and writers alike have waited breathlessly for this moment, the moment when who they have envisioned as the leading characters will be finally realized in an actor and actress. But when they turn to see who has been tapped for these most special of roles, the thud of their collective jaws hitting the majestic mahogany conference table muffles their mutual groans.

There before their wide eyes, instead of the expected vibrant, young couple with gleaming white teeth and tanned and toned bodies, stand a 75-year-old man and a 65-year-old woman. Not what they had pictured for their production. And yet, this is what God has chosen. His screenplay called for a couple to launch a new nation, one that would impact the entire world. As he would say, a nation through whom "all the nations of the earth would be blessed" (Genesis 12:1-3). This would be the role of a lifetime.

Abram and Sarai stand there, adorned perhaps by dusty old robes and crowned with wispy white hair and loosely fitting skin and as befuddled as anyone else. God chose them to begin a nation. An unlikely pair, especially after factoring in that Sarai was barren. How could God expect to start a nation with a woman who could not bear children? To complicate the story line, it will be 25 more years before they actually have their child of promise. By that time Abram and Sarai will be 100 years old and 90 years old, respectively (and their names will be changed to Abraham and Sarah). Perhaps Social Security checks will help this special couple decorate the baby's tent and they'll be able take naps when the baby does. And the rest, as they say, is history. His story.

God picks people you and I wouldn't necessarily select to take part in His story. In fact, sometimes we are shocked who plays the starring roles in his stories. Unlike the way we do business, he taps people, not merely because of their abilities, but for their availability. God searches for people who are open to be used by Him. Since He uses only those who are willing to be used for His purposes, there is no doubt that it is He who is doing the wonder-working. Let there be no doubt, throughout history He is the one making things happen.

That's good news, isn't it? In the business world, you may not have a great pedigree. In academics, you may not be a Rhodes Scholar. You may not have a lot of money and you may have average looks. But you may be sitting in a pretty good position to be a top pick for God's work. Just like Abraham, Isaac & Jacob. If you're not already engaged in this series PLEASE join us as we read through the entire Bible together. Have a great week!!!

You Are Loved. Ray
