NEWS & UPDATES

SAVE THE DATE

September 15th is National Back To Church Sunday!

This event has been gaining more publicity in recent years, and when people hear about it, we want them to consider visiting the church of Christ. House to House/Heart to Heart is featuring an invitation to 'come back to church' in the August issue. While we usually send H2H to 2,882 residents in Summerdale, we are sending the "Back To Church" August issue to 12,547 homes all over southern Baldwin County! Ray has written a customized article that will be featured on the back page as well. We will also have some copies available on the welcome table next month.

Please be praying for this community outreach!

If you have a coin can for the Children's Home, please return it to Hazel or Christy ASAP!

NEW MEMBERS:

Please see Christy Gill to have your picture taken for the directory, or if you need your picture updated.

New directory sheets are placed on the table at the north end of the auditorium. If you need a new, complete set of directory pages, please contact Christy. A pdf of the directory can be emailed to you as well.

Cindy Hatcher is available for counseling appointments in person or via ZOOM. Call 251-263-3100 for an appointment.

Good Samaritan House items of the month: JULY ~ Canned Goods, Peanut Butter, Jelly, Mayo, & Ketchup.

Today is an awesome day! Of course, every Lord's Day is special but today is a special day as we are kicking off our Sunday Night Soldiers program tonight at 5pm. For those of you who may not be aware,

Sunday Night Soldiers is a program designed to help our kids and teens prepare for Lads to Leaders. We will work each week on different convention events as well as teach them about the Bible through year-round events like Centurion of Scripture, Know the Books, and Bible Bowl. We encourage all our kids and teens to participate in this great program. If you or your child would like more information, please reach out to Andrea, Steve Yager or myself and we will be happy to answer any questions you have. This is an exciting time for our youth program. We ask for your prayers and support as we work to grow our group in both God's word and number.

Speaking of support, if you missed our Lads to Leaders meeting last Sunday, do not worry, we can still use your help. Anyone who would like to volunteer to help with Sunday Night Soldiers or Lads to Leaders in any way is welcome. This program is a wonderful way to get plugged in to a ministry here at Summerdale. It is my prayer that we all will work together to encourage our kids of all ages to become strong Christian leaders in God's church. Thank you for your continued support and love and as always remember you are loved!

Eric

The Deuteronomy Book = Psalms Concerning the Word of God

The fifth, and final, book of Psalms is a comprehensive book of thanksgiving hymns. It contains 44 psalms including 15 ascribed to David, one to Solomon (Psalm 127) and the rest are anonymous. These psalms reiterate the thoughts of praise and giving thanks. Why? Because He is the Savior, Deliverer, and God over all the earth.

Psalms: Book Five relates to the book of Deuteronomy. This is similar to the book of Deuteronomy because it speaks of a new beginning in the Promised Land. The general theme is the Word of God. While several divisions distinguish the other books, like God's Word itself, this book is a perfect whole and is the only "Psalm Book" with an even number of Psalms. They express the thoughts, prayers, and experiences of the captives and their return to Jerusalem. They also convey a message of both God's presence among His people and God's will within His word. We see God among us, in His temple with His people and in their midst when they meditate on His law. This book uses Elohim (7) much less than Yahweh (236).

Many of these psalms praise God for His word (note Psalm 119). God's people should give thanks for God's direction. God wants the most perfect sacrifice of all, which is our faithfulness and obedience to His revealed will. He desires for us to know Him and His purpose for our lives.

This book begins with acknowledging the delivering power of God (Psalm 107). In the middle we can find the "Egyptian Hallel" (Psalms 111-119 - the psalms used by Israel during the annual feasts), and the "Songs of Ascents" (Psalms 120-137 - the hymns traditionally sang on the way to worship). The doxology is found in Psalm 150 but really should include Psalms 145-150, because they are five hallelujah psalms. They thank God in every possible way for His goodness towards His people. Hallelujah ends this final section as a note of joyfulness and gladness without an "Amen" to conclude it. It might be inferred that more songs of praise should be added to the hymnbook of the church as we continue to see the will of God fulfilled among His people.

I hope and pray you enjoyed our study of psalms and are enjoying the book of Proverbs too. Next week we will consider the importance of wisdom and learning from the wisdom of Solomon. May God be glorified! Have a great week!

You Are Loved. Ray
